

Course Description

Leading Your Tribe

Why should anyone follow you?

A 1 day seminar

Leading Your Tribe deals with the core issues of being attractive as a leader. Every group of individuals, a tribe, seeks out leadership. This class is for anyone who aspires to a leadership role, because leadership involves a number of interwoven concepts that make up the fabric of leading. Participants will apply each of these elements to his or her own leadership situation to answer the question, "why should anyone follow you?" (1 day, 8 hours)

Course Content

Defining leadership

Running in tribes

Functional and visionary leaders

- 4 questions leaders must answer
- The leadership progression
- 7 skills a leader needs

What followers want from you

- How leaders generate power

Being goal directed and results oriented

- Expressing goals and key results
- 4 critical goal questions

The leader as a change agent

- 4 types of change
- How change happens in organizations
- 5 ingredients of successful change

Course materials Participants receive

- A 35+ page participant guide that includes narrative of main points, application activities, leadership resources, and a follow up guide to implement lessons learned.